

Board Member Positions

Kids Now empowers youth with life-success skills to make positive choices. Kids Now is in a high growth phase where demand for programs is ahead of funding. And, the need for the critical life skills that Kids Now instills has never been greater.

As a result, Kids Now is looking to expand its board to make room for passionate, results oriented individuals to join them in significantly growing the Kids Now program to expand the positive impact that Kids Now has on today's youth. They are looking for dedicated individuals who are able to commit the time and personal energy to support them in advancing their mission.

Criteria for New Board Member Candidates

- Passionate in the vision of the program: To empower youth with the life-success skills to make positive choices.
- Have the means and desire to promote the organization and become an ambassador for the cause.
- Prepared to actively participate and drive activities in Fund Raising, recruiting volunteers, creating awareness.

Relevant Experience

- Volunteering and/or Board experience, including not-for-profit.
- Business and/or professional experience at a senior level.
- Experience leading growth and change is an asset.
- Previous fundraising success is ideal.

Personal Qualities

Visionary and Enterprising: Willing to create and try new things to support the cause. Passionate and self-motivated. Team player: Openly and easily shares, collaborates and supports others. Drive and Determination to achieve results. Inspiring Leader: is able to attract others in their network to support the cause. A special skill that could be used on a committee (i.e., legal, fundraising, writing, events, P.R., etc.). Time: must be able to and interested in devoting a minimum 6-10 hours per month (This is a guideline. We recognize that contribution and impact are not always related to time).
